

SABM ONLINE PBM CERTIFICATE COURSE WITH EXAM

ABOUT THIS COURSE

Physicians, nurses and other healthcare personnel looking to grow their knowledge and skills in Patient Blood Management—from ethics to advanced techniques—should consider enrolling in the new online course. This course offers administrative guidance, PBM program principles, clinical concepts and best practice applications.

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

- Physiology of Anemia and Oxygen Delivery.
- Pre-op Evaluation and Preparation of the Surgical Patient.
- The Clotting Cascade—Effects of Anticoagulants.
- Surgical and Anesthesia Concepts.
- PBM in the Trauma Patient.
- PBM in the Pediatric Patient.
- Profound Anemia When Blood is Not an Option.
- Law, Ethics and Patient Rights.

COURSE DETAILS

Course Title: SABM Online Patient Blood Management (PBM) Certificate Course with Exam.

Course Director: Sheldon Goldstein, MD.

Release Date: February 22, 2019.

Expiration Date: February 22, 2020.

Credits Available: 8.0

Media: Internet.

Jointly provided by the Postgraduate Institute for Medicine and Society for the Advancement of Blood Management.

Postgraduate Institute for Medicine

SABM[®]

Find more information and enroll at:

sabm.org